Barton Heights Lost a Well Played Game by a Slump in the Seventh.

BROWNIES STILL AT THE TOP

George Bender's Richmonds Jump Into second Place With a Good Margin-Fine Race.

The Barton Heights contingent at the game yesterday was sorely disappointed at the loss of the game by their pets. Up to the seventh inning the game was clearly theirs. The Brownles had made but two dinky hits and no runs, and there was great rejoicing in the Barton Heights ranks. Mayor Rose led the rooting, and the Brownles' rooters were dis-

In the seventh, however, there was a slump. Eacho, first up, singled; Anthony followed with a hit, and Hicks took a walk. That filled the bases, and the fine players from the Heights went to pieces. Taylor muffed Knowles's fly; Eacho scored, and in the mix-up Anthony was nailed at the plate, in his eagerness to score, McLenvy got to first on a chance, and on a balk Hicks scored, and the others went down, as Huicher was given a walk. Sharp, the next up, caught first on a choice, but Knowles was thrown out at plate. Then, with the bases full, John McEvoy hit for two bases, clearing the bags ahead of him and scoring on some chump playing. With two out and nobody on base, Cheatham singled. He was caught at second, however, on Eacho's hit to Rose, and the side went out with Eacho left on first base. That put the score i to 6, but Rose arose to the emergency, singled, stole second on McLeavy's bad throw down. No more runs were made by either side. In the eighth, after two men had died, Gibson was declared out for cutting first-base. There is no rule in the book regarding this play, but the umpire was clearly right in using his own judgment in the matter, as Gibson acknowledged his error by running back to first-base after the umpire had called him. The Barton Heights boys deserved the game, for they played better general ball than the Brownies.

Closely following this announcement comes the rumor that the boardwalk along the ocean front will be arected at the same time and this Casin will probably enclose its large upper dock to form one of the most committee an party lors.
